

DOCTOR CRANE

Once a hungry wolf was in search of his prey

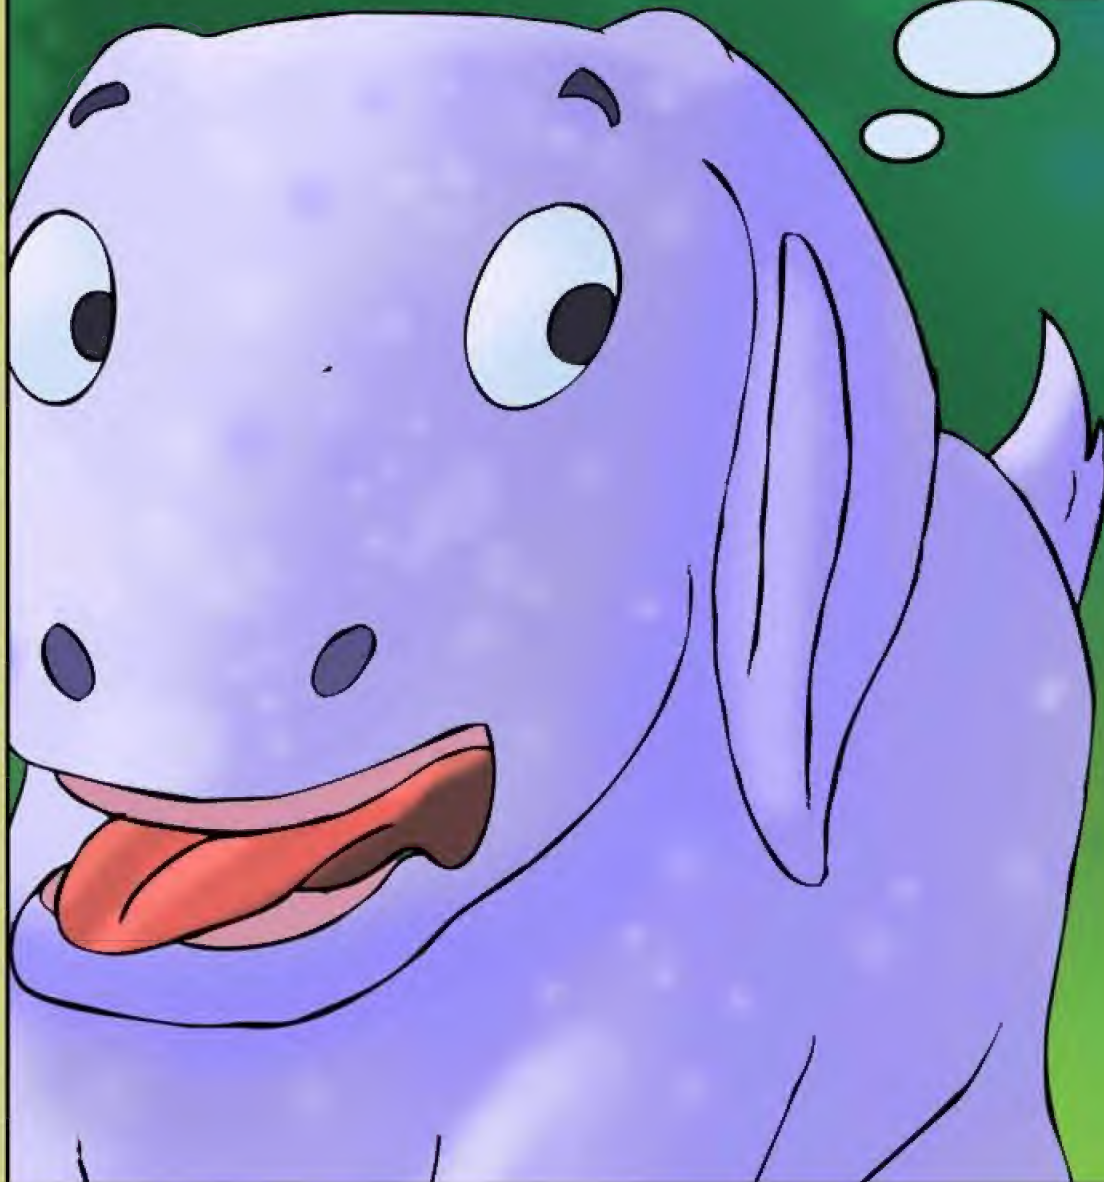

He spotted a goat.

Oh it will be
wonderful to have
this fat goat
as my meal.

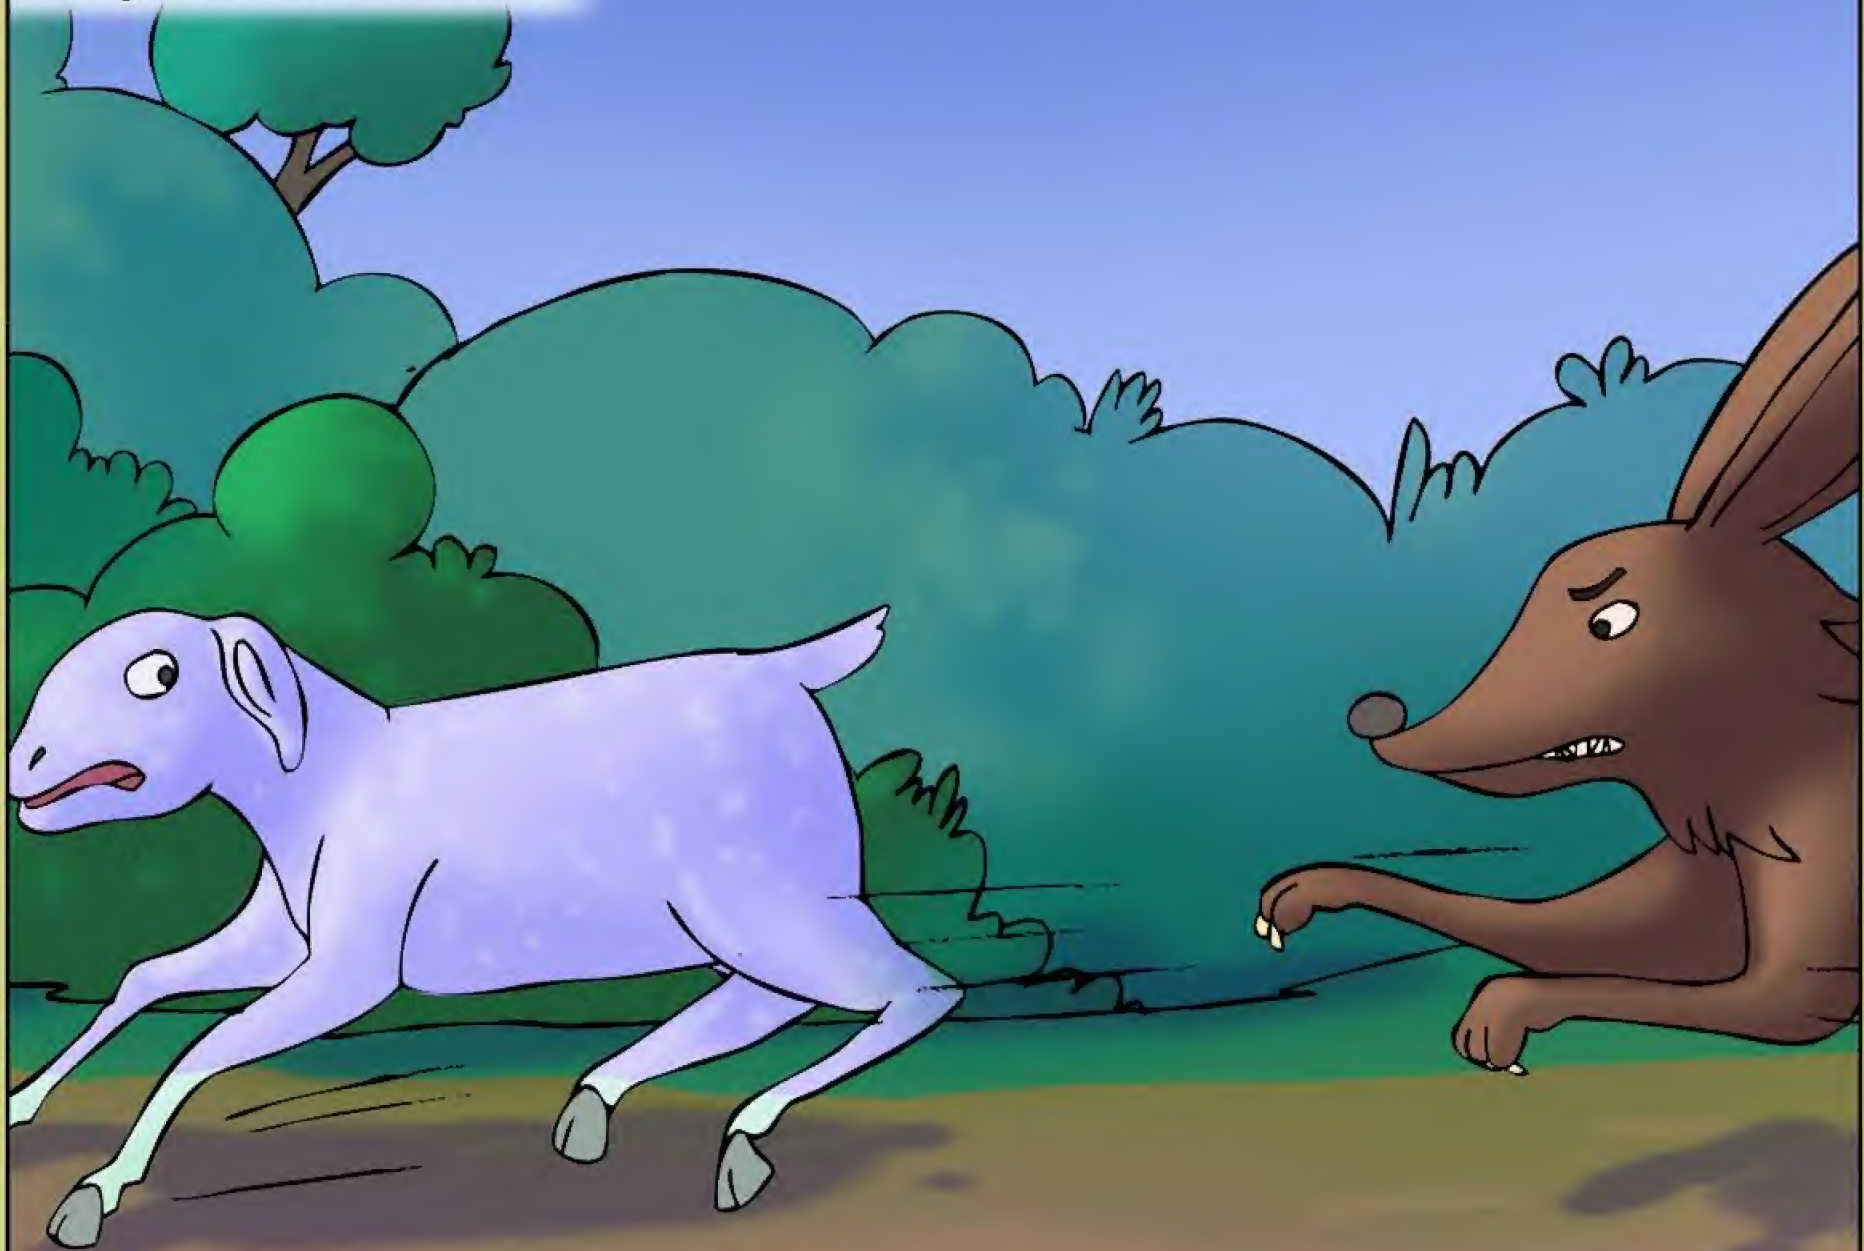

The goat spotted the hungry wolf...

The wolf is coming
in my direction.
I better run and
save my life.

The goat started to run....

Before the poor goat can escape, the wolf pounced and instantly killed him.

He started to enjoy the flesh of the goat.

Wow! Very
tasty!

While relishing the flesh of the goat, suddenly...

Aah! Something
is hurting my
throat badly.

Oh! It is a piece of bone of the goat. It is neither coming out nor going in.
I am helpless. It is hurting me.
If I try to eat it pains
me even more.

He spotted a crane

This crane has
a long beak. Let me
take his help to remove
the bone that is stuck in my throat. I can then
enjoy the goat's
flesh.

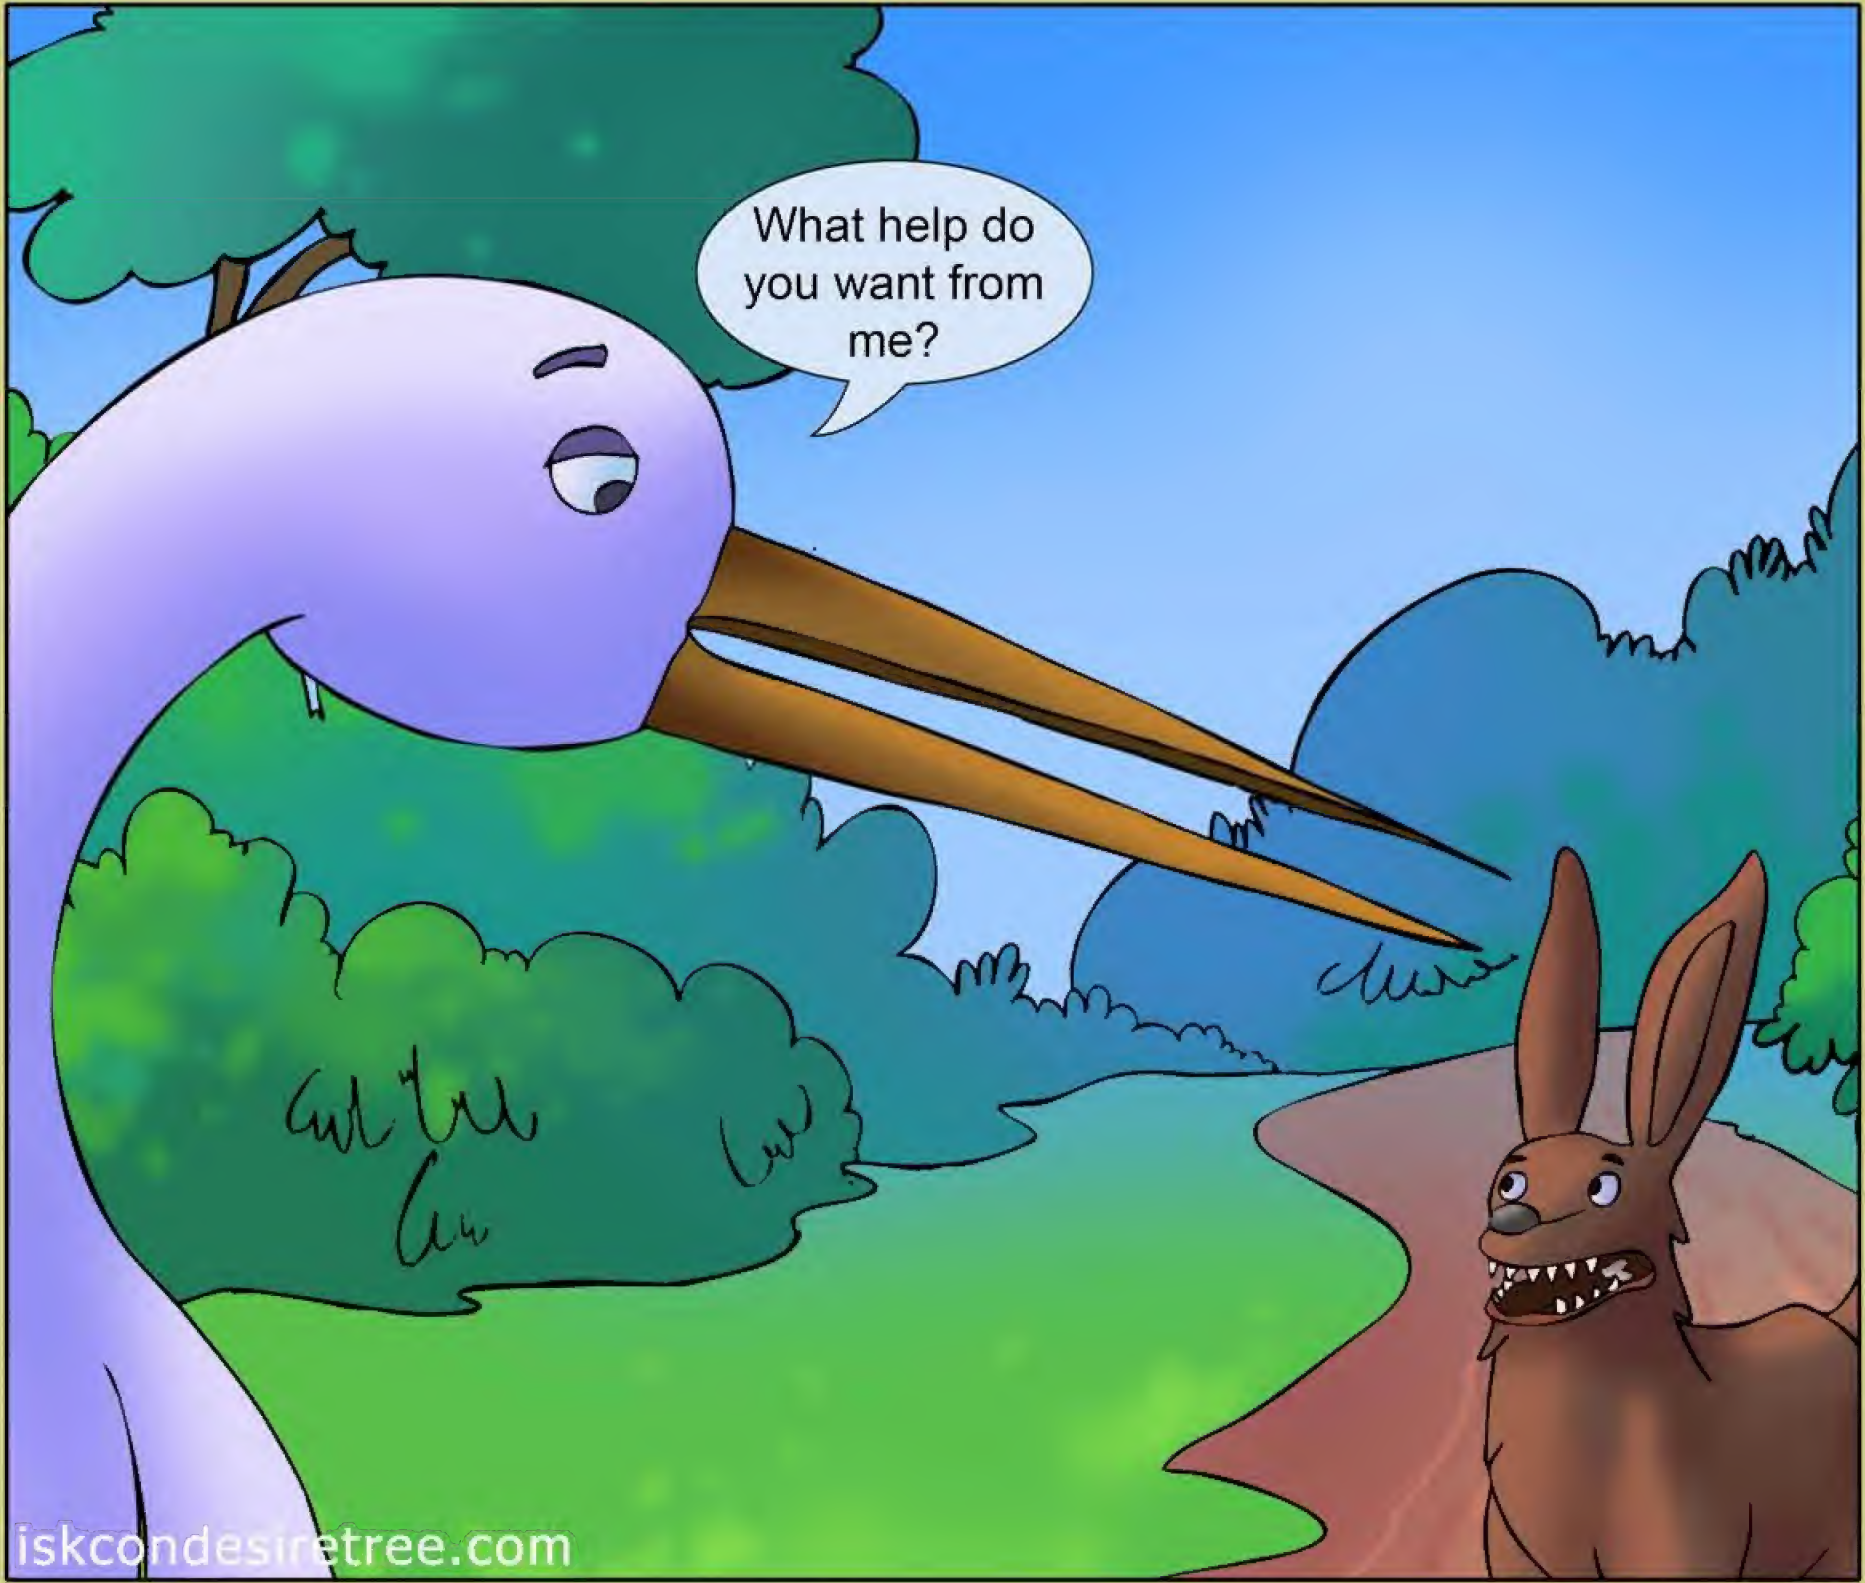

Dear crane.
How are you?

This hungry wolf
is planning to allure
me. Better I fly
immediately.

And the
the

My dear crane
do not worry. I will not harm you. I need your help.
If you help me, than I will
gift you something
very useful.

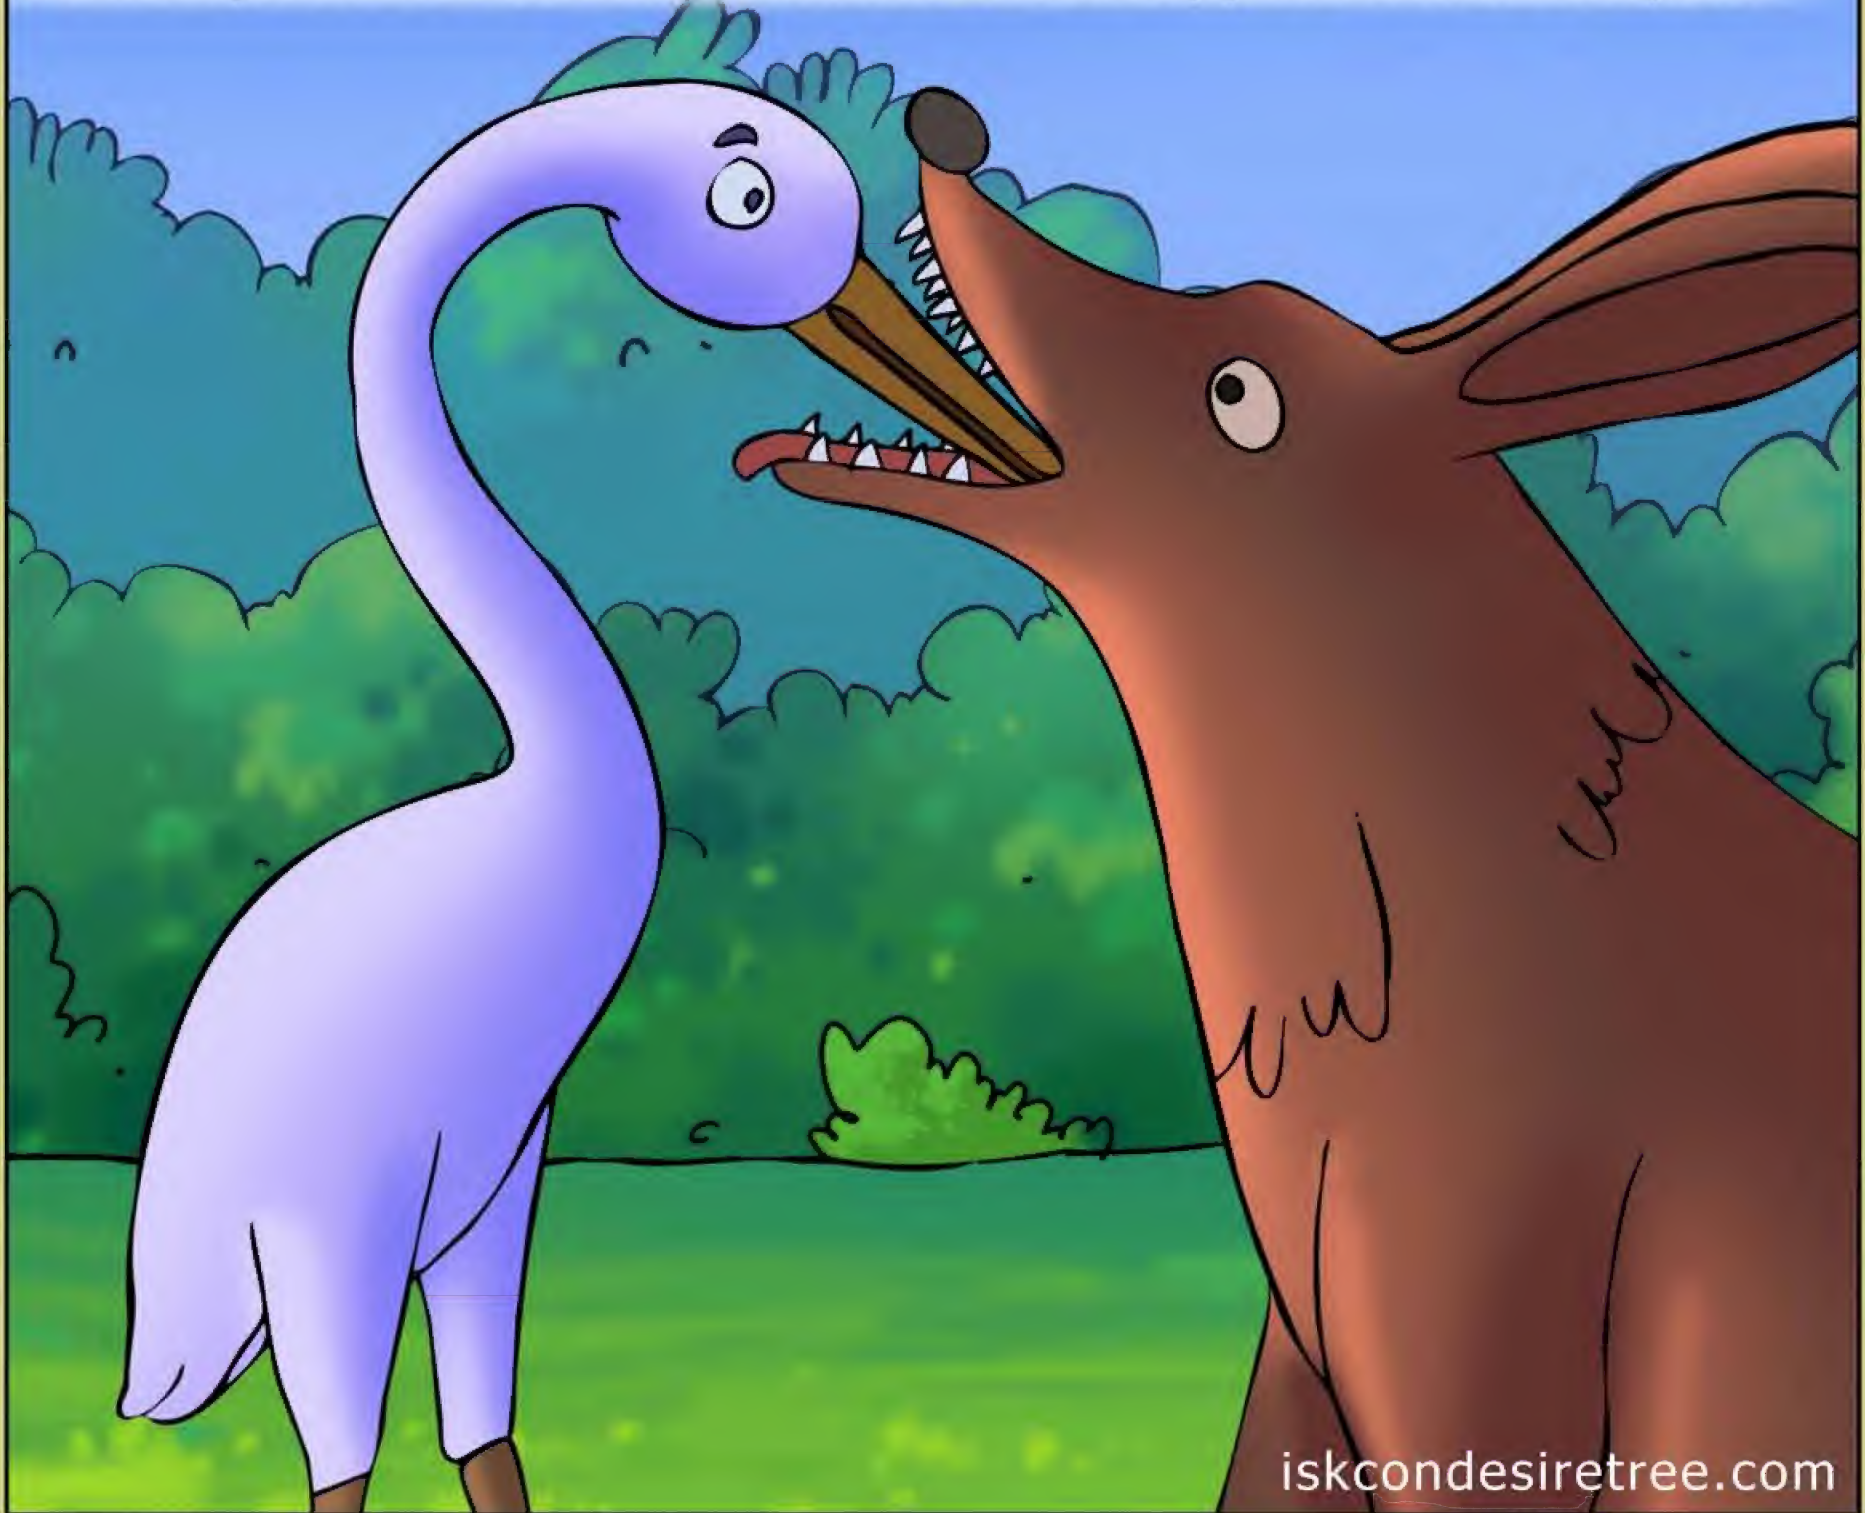

What help do
you want from
me?

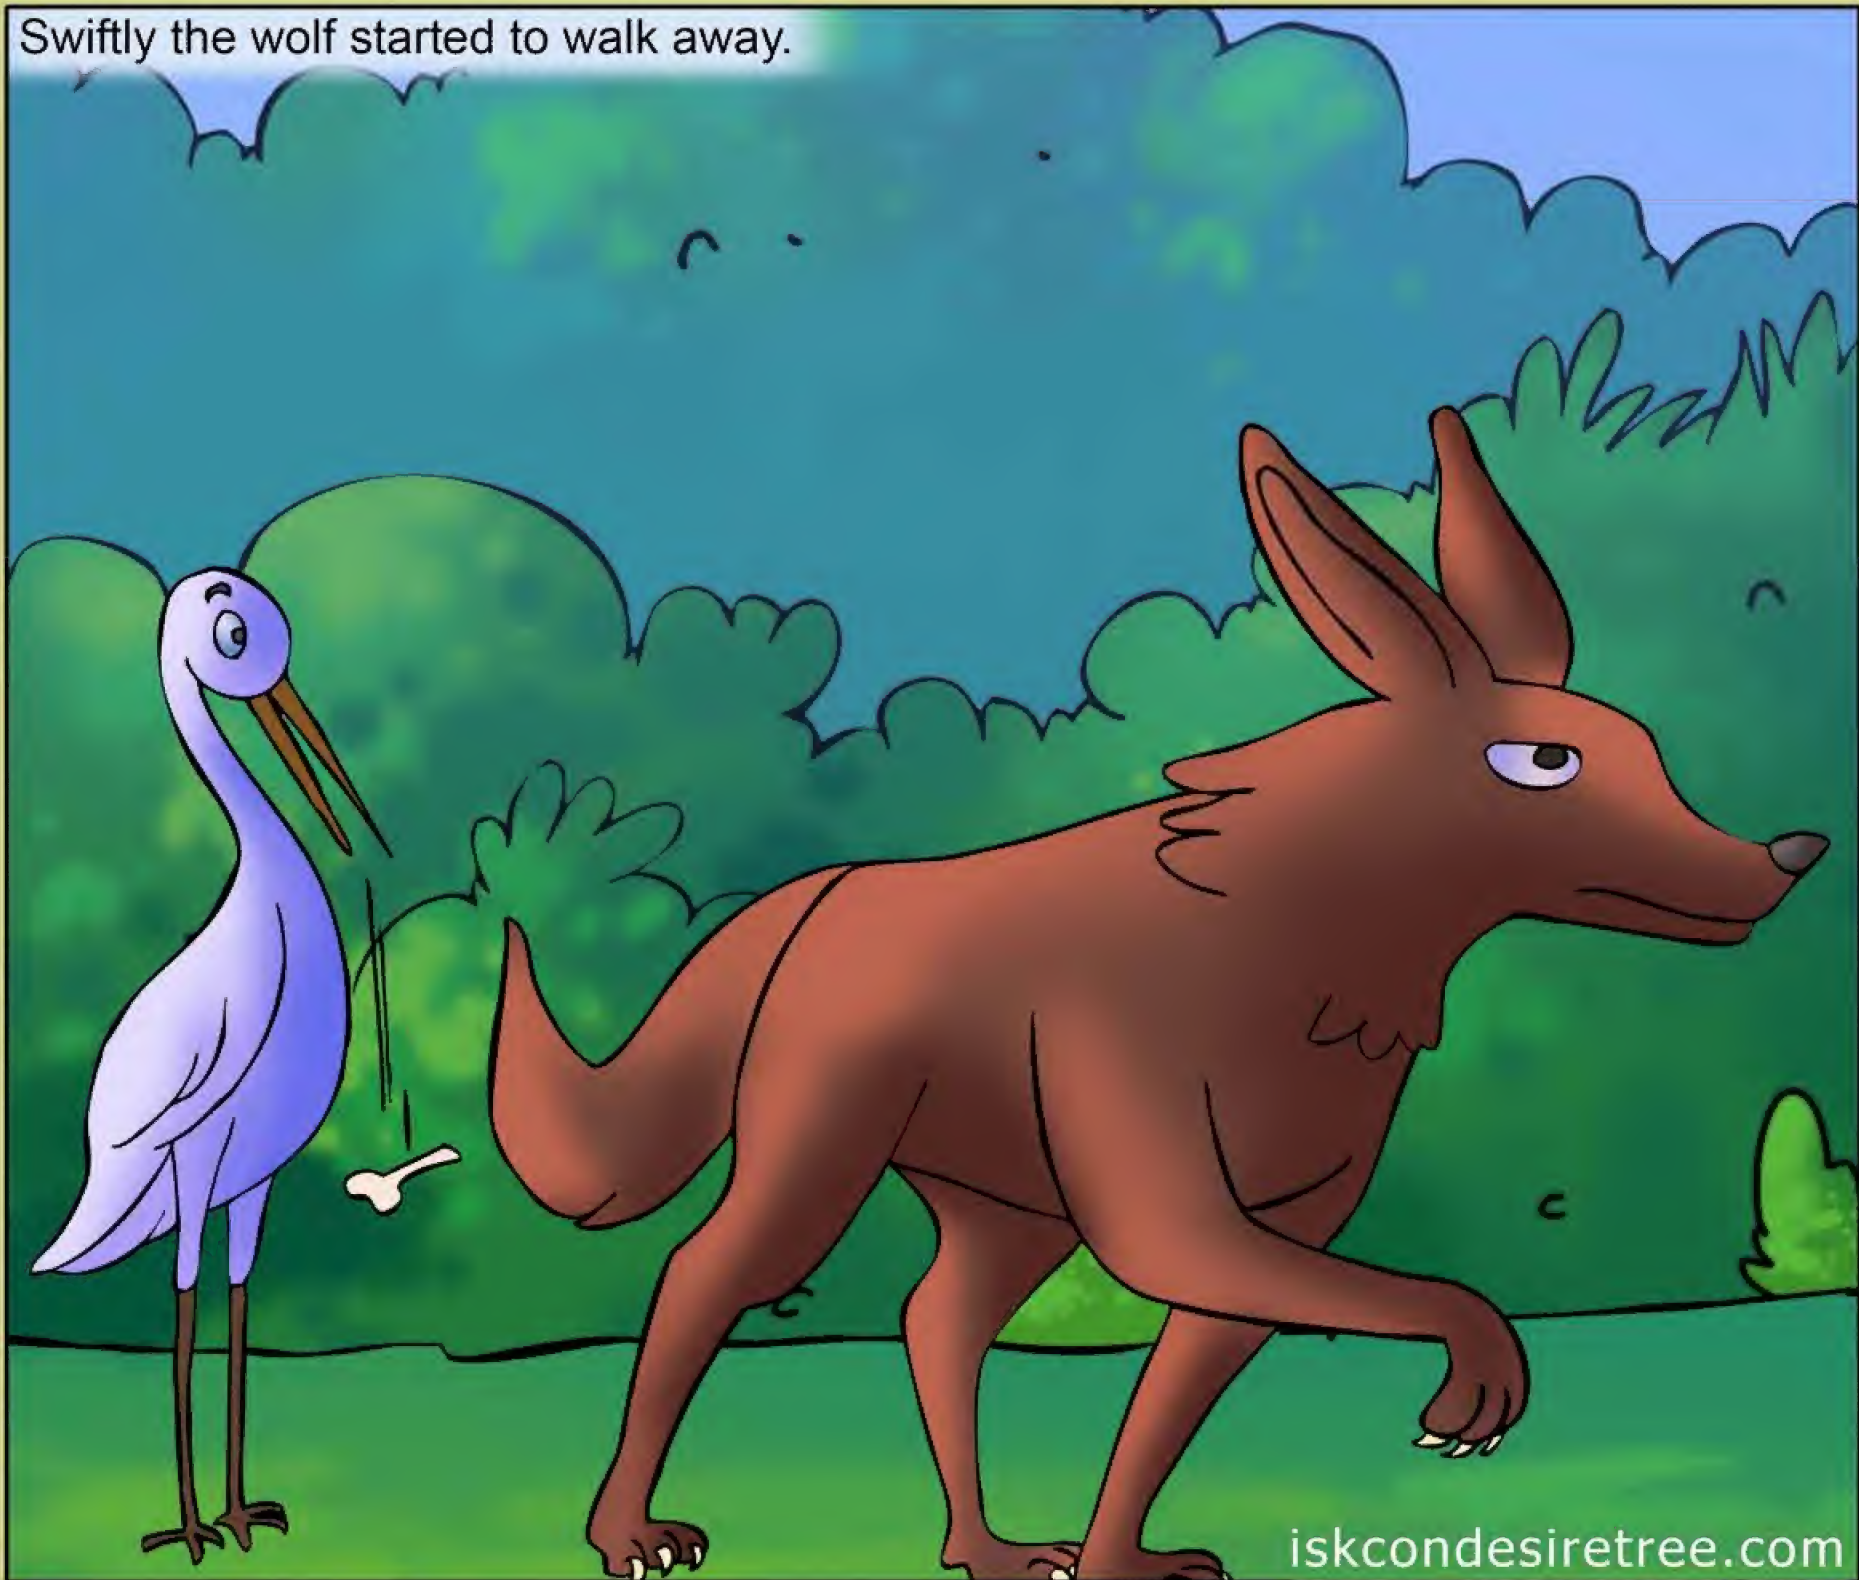

There is a painful
bone piece stuck in my throat. Can you please remove it with your
long beak?

The wolf opened his mouth wide. The crane immediately pulled out the bone piece.

Swiftly the wolf started to walk away.

Hey! Where is my gift? You are not even thanking me for relieving you of the painful bone.

Thank me that I let you go alive. If you want the reward then you will have to enter my
stomach!

Forget the gift.
I better save
my life.

MORAL :

Expect no reward for serving the wicked.

A materialistic is attached to his enjoyment. In order to enjoy, he will make friends with anyone. Once his work is done he will not keep his word. He will threaten and even kill the person who has helped him if that satisfies his senses. Never put faith on a materialist who is always attached to his senses.